Donate to the SFAA Foundation — Your Support is Vital!

The SFAA Foundation, a 501(c)(3) organization, was created to increase diversity within the surety and fidelity industry. SFAA, along with its member companies, recognizes the value of diversity in the workplace. Having a diverse workforce with unique experiences and viewpoints has proven to increase creativity, productivity and ultimately the company's revenue.

Your Donations Support Programs Such As:

Surety & Fidelity Intern and Scholarship Program

- The Surety and Fidelity Intern & Scholarship Program was created to encourage diverse college students to consider the surety and fidelity industry as a career of choice.
- The program gives underrepresented* college students the opportunity to work with industry experts through paid, professional internships with our member organizations.
- Underrepresented students are defined as African American, Native American, Alaskan, Asian/Pacific Islander, Hispanic, female, LGBTQ+, veteran or disabled.
- Upon completion of an internship, students are eligible to apply for a $5,000 academic scholarship.
- Seventeen $5,000 academic scholarships awarded in 2021 for a total of $85,000!
- The program was created in 2003 to help increase diversity within the surety and fidelity industry by attracting underrepresented students into the field.
